4A. Dutiable amount of an estate

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the dutiable amount of the estate of any person shall be determined by deducting from the net value of that estate, as determined in accordance with section 4, an amount of R3,5 million.
- (2) Where a person was the spouse at the time of death of one or more previously deceased persons, the dutiable amount of the estate of that person shall be determined by deducting from the net value of that estate, as determined in accordance with section 4, an amount equal to the amount specified in subsection (1)-
 - (a) multiplied by two; and
 - (b) reduced by the amount deducted from the net value of the estate of any one of the previously deceased persons in accordance with this section.
- (3) Where a person was one of the spouses at the time of death of a previously deceased person, the dutiable amount of the estate of that person shall be determined by deducting from the net value of that estate, as determined in accordance with section 4, an amount equal to the sum of-
 - (a) the amount specified in subsection (1); and
 - (b) the amount specified in subsection (1) divided by the number of spouses, reduced by an amount which is determined by dividing the amount deducted, in accordance with this section, from the net value of the estate of the previously deceased person by the number of spouses of that previously deceased person.

(Section 4A(3)(b) substituted by section 4(1)(a) of Act 7 of 2010 with effect from 1 January 2010)
- (4) The amount contemplated in subsection (2)(b) or (3)(b) shall not exceed the amount specified in subsection (1).
- (5) Subsections (2) and (3) shall not apply unless the executor of the estate of that person submits, at the time and in the manner and form prescribed by the Commissioner, to the Commissioner a copy of a return submitted to the Commissioner in terms of section 7 or other relevant material that the Commissioner may regard as reasonable in respect of the estate of the previously deceased person.

(Section 4A(5) substituted by section 2 of Act 15 of 2016)
- (6) Where a person and his or her spouse die simultaneously, the person of whom the net value of the estate, determined in accordance with section 4, is the smallest must be deemed for the purposes of this section to have died immediately prior to his or her spouse.

5. Determination of value of property

(Heading substituted by section 12(a) of Act 60 of 2001 with effect from 27 July 2001)

- (1) The value of any property for the purposes of the inclusion thereof in the estate of any person in terms of section 3 or the deduction thereof in terms of section 4 determined as at the date of death of that person, shall be-

(Words preceding paragraph (a) substituted by section 1(a) of Act 19 of 2001)

- (a) in the case of property, other than such property as is referred to in paragraph (f) bis or the proviso to paragraph (g), disposed of by a purchase and sale which in the opinion of the Commissioner is a bona fide purchase and sale in the course of the liquidation of the estate of the deceased, the price realized by such sale;

(Section 5(1)(a) amended by section 4(a) of Act 65 of 1960)

- (b) in the case of any such fiduciary, usufructuary or other like interest in property as is referred to in paragraph (a) of section 3(2), an amount determined by capitalizing at twelve per cent the annual value of the right of enjoyment of the property in which the deceased held any such fiduciary, usufructuary or other like interest, to the extent to which the person who upon the cessation of the said interest of the deceased in consequence of the death of the deceased becomes entitled to any right of enjoyment of such property of whatever nature, over the expectation of life of such person, or if such right of enjoyment is to be held for a lesser period than the life of such person, over such lesser period: Provided that in any case in which it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that such person paid any consideration for the right of ownership in the property whereby he became entitled to the right of enjoyment of the property upon the death of the deceased, the value shall be so much of the value so arrived at as exceeds the amount of such consideration together with interest thereon calculated at six per cent per annum from the date of payment of such consideration to the date of death of the deceased: Provided further that where upon the cessation of the interest of the deceased in any property, there accrues to the holder of the bare dominium therein, the full ownership in that property, the value of the advantage or benefit so accruing by reason of the cessation of the interest held by the deceased, shall not exceed the difference between the fair market value of that property as at the date of such cessation and the value of the bare dominium as at the date when such bare dominium was first acquired under the disposition creating the said interest held by the deceased: Provided further that if upon the cessation of the interest held by the deceased it is not possible to ascertain until some future date the person or some or all of the persons who will become entitled to the right of enjoyment of the property, the value shall be determined by capitalizing at twelve per cent over a period of fifty years the annual value of the right of enjoyment of the property in which such interest was held, unless the Commissioner and the executor agree that, having regard to the circumstances of the case, it would be reasonable to adopt a lesser period than fifty years, in which event such lesser period, as agreed, may be adopted accordingly;

(Second proviso added to section 5(1)(b) by section 3(a) of Act 59 of 1957 with effect from 26 June 1957)

(Third proviso added to section 5(1)(b) by section 4(b) of Act 65 of 1960)

(Section 5(1)(b) substituted by section 7(1)(a) of Act 114 of 1977 with effect from 1 April 1977)

- (c) in the case of any right to any annuity referred to in paragraph (a) of sub-section (2) of section three, an amount equal to the value of the annuity capitalized at twelve per cent.
- (i) in the case where the said right accrues to some other person on the death of the deceased, over the expectation of life of the person to whom the said right accrues on the death of the deceased, or if it is to be held for a lesser period than the life of such person, over such lesser period;
- (ii) in the case where the said right does not so accrue to some other person, over the expectation of life of the person who on the death of the deceased is the owner of the property upon which such annuity was charged;

(Section 5(1)(c) amended by section 7(1)(b) of Act 114 of 1977 with effect from 1 April 1977)

- (d) in the case of any right to any annuity referred to in paragraph (b) of sub-section (2) of section three, an amount equal to the value of the annuity capitalized at twelve per cent over the expectation of life of the person to whom the right to such annuity accrues on the death of the deceased, or if it is to be held for a lesser period than the life of such person, over such lesser period;

(Section 5(1)(d) amended by section 7(1)(c) of Act 114 of 1977 with effect from 1 April 1977)

- (d)bis in the case of any annuity to which the provisions of section 3(3)(a) or (a)bis apply, an amount equal to the value of the annuity capitalized at twelve per cent over the expectation of life of the annuitant, or if the annuity is payable for a lesser period than the life of the annuitant, over such lesser period: Provided that if within five years after the death of the deceased the annuity ceases to be payable because of the death of the annuitant within that period or, where the annuitant is the widow of the deceased, because of her remarriage within that period, the value of the annuity shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the lesser of –

(i) the aggregate of the amounts which accrued to the annuitant in respect of the annuity and any amounts which accrued to him or his estate upon or as a result of the termination of the annuity; or

(ii) the said capitalized value of the annuity;

(Section 5(1)(d)bis inserted by section 4(1) of Act 81 of 1965 with effect from 24 March 1965)

(Section 5(1)(d)bis substituted by section 2(1) of Act 56 of 1966 with effect from 24 March 1965)

(Section 5(1)(d)bis amended by section 7(1)(d) of Act 114 of 1977 with effect from 1 April 1977)

(e) in the case of any property referred to in section 3(3)(b), an amount determined in the manner prescribed in section 62 of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962);

(Section 5(1)(e) substituted by section 10 of Act 77 of 1964)

(Section 5(1)(e) substituted by section 12(1)(a) of Act 87 of 1988 with effect from 16 March 1988)

(Section 5(1)(e) substituted by section 9(a) of Act 97 of 1993)

(f) in the case of a right of ownership in any movable or immovable property which is subject to a usufructuary or other like interest in favour of any person, the amount by which the fair market value of the full ownership of such property exceeds the value of such interest, determined -

(Words preceding subparagraph (i) substituted by section 1(b) of Act 19 of 2001)

(i) in the case of a usufructuary interest, by capitalizing at twelve per cent the annual value of the right of enjoyment of the property subject to such usufructuary interest over the expectation of life of the person entitled to such interest, or if such right of enjoyment is to be held for a lesser period than the life of such person, over such lesser period;

(ii) in the case of an annuity charged upon the property, by capitalizing at twelve per cent the amount of the annuity over the expectation of life of the person entitled to such annuity, or if it is to be held for a lesser period than the life of such person, over such lesser period; or

(iii) in the case of any other interest, by capitalizing at twelve per cent such amount as the Commissioner may consider reasonable as representing the annual yield of such interest, over the expectation of life of the person entitled to such interest, or if such interest is to be held for a lesser period than the life of such person, over such lesser period;

(Section 5(1)(f) amended by section 7(1)(e) of Act 114 of 1977 with effect from 1 April 1977)

(f)bis in the case of shares in any company not quoted on any stock exchange, the value of such shares in the hands of the deceased at the date of his death, subject to the following provisions, namely

(Words preceding subparagraph (i) substituted by section 1(c) of Act 19 of 2001)

(i) no regard shall be had to any provision in the memorandum and articles of association, founding statement, association agreement or rules of the company, as the case may be, restricting the transferability of shares therein, but it shall be assumed that such shares were freely transferable;

(Section 5(1)(f)bis(i) substituted by section 9(b) of Act 97 of 1993)

- (ii) no regard shall be had to any provision in the memorandum and articles of association, founding statement, association agreement or rules of the company, as the case may be, whereby or whereunder the value of the shares of the deceased or any other member is to be determined;

(Section 5(1)(f)bis(ii) substituted by section 9(b) of Act 97 of 1993)

- (iii) if upon a winding-up of the company the deceased would have been entitled to share in the assets of the company to a greater extent pro rata to shareholding or membership than other shareholders or members, no lesser value shall be placed on the shares held by the deceased than the amount to which he would have been so entitled if the company had been in course of winding-up and the said amount had been determined as at the date of his death;

(Section 5(1)(f)bis(iii) substituted by section 9(b) of Act 97 of 1993)

- (iv) no regard shall be had to any provision or arrangement resulting in any variation in the rights attaching to any shares through or on account of the death of the deceased;

(Section 5(1)(bis)(iv) substituted by section 10(b) of Act 71 of 1961)

- (v) there shall be taken into account any power of control exercisable by the deceased and the company whereunder he was entitled or empowered to vary or cancel any rights attaching to any class of shares therein, including by way of redemption of preference shares, if, by the exercise of such power he could have conferred upon himself any benefit or advantage in respect of the assets or profits of the company;

- (vi)

(Section 5(1)(bis)(vi) deleted by section 10(c) of Act 71 of 1961)

(Section 5(1)(f)bis added by section 4(c) of Act 65 of 1960)

(Section 5(1)(f)(bis) amended by section 10(a) of Act 71 of 1961)

- (f) ter in the case of any property referred to in paragraph (d) of sub-section (3) of section three which consists only of profits, an amount determined by capitalizing at twelve per cent. such amount as the Commissioner may consider reasonable as representing the annual value of such profits over the expectation of life of the deceased immediately prior to the date of his death, and in the case of any other property referred to in the said paragraph the amount remaining after deducting from the fair market value of that property as at the date of death of the deceased the expenses and liabilities which the deceased would have had to bear or assume if he had at that date exercised his power of disposition;

(Section 5(1)(f)ter added by section 4(c) of Act 65 of 1960)

(Section 5(1)(f)ter amended by section 7(1)(f) of Act 114 of 1977 with effect from 1 April 1977)

- (g) in the case of any other property, the fair market value of such property as at the date of death of the deceased person:

(Words preceding the proviso substituted by section 1(d) of Act 19 of 2001)

Provided that in any case in which, as a result of conditions imposed by any person whomsoever, the value of any property could or would be reduced for any reason at or after the moment of death, the value of such property shall, unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, be determined as though those conditions had not been imposed.

(Proviso to section 5(1)(g) substituted by section 4(d) of Act 65 of 1960)

- (1A) Where any company referred to in paragraph (f)bis of subsection (1) owns immovable property on which bona fide farming operations are being carried on in the Republic, the value of such immovable property shall, in so far as it is relevant for the purposes of determining in terms of that subsection the value of any shares in such company, be determined in the manner prescribed in the definition of 'fair market value' in section 1.

(Section 5(1A) inserted by section 7(1) of Act 81 of 1985 with effect from 1 April 1982)

- (2) For the purposes of paragraphs (b) and (f) of subsection (1) and for purposes of determining the value of any deduction contemplated in section 4, the annual value of the right of enjoyment of a property means an amount equal to twelve per cent upon the fair market value of the full ownership of the property which is subject to any fiduciary, usufructuary or other like interest: Provided that where the Commissioner is satisfied that the property which is subject to any such interest could not reasonably be expected to produce an annual yield equal to 12 per cent on such value of the property, the Commissioner may fix such sum as representing the annual yield as may be reasonable, and the sum so fixed shall be deemed to be the annual value of the right of enjoyment of such property: Provided further that where the property which is subject to any such interest consists of books, pictures, statuary or other objects of art, the annual value of the right of enjoyment thereof shall for the purposes of paragraph (b) of sub-section (1) be deemed to be the average net receipts (if any) derived by the person entitled to such right of enjoyment of such property during the three years immediately preceding the date of death of the deceased.

(Section 5(2) amended by section 7(1)(g) of Act 114 of 1977 with effect from 1 April 1977)

(Section 5(2) amended by section 2 of Act 136 of 1991)

(Section 5(2) amended by section 1(e) of Act 19 of 2001)

(Section 5(2) amended by section 12(b) of Act 60 of 2001 with effect from 27 July 2001)

- (3) Where for the purposes of sub-section (1) any calculation is required to be made over the expectation of life of any person, such calculation shall, in the case of a person who is not a natural person, be made over a period of fifty years.

- (4) Whenever the value of any property included in the estate of a deceased is reduced as a result of the continuance after the death of that person of any right (other than a fiduciary, usufructuary or other like interest) to the use or occupation of property for no consideration or for a consideration which in the opinion of the Commissioner is not an adequate consideration, the value of such property shall for the purposes of subsection (1) be determined as though the said right had not been granted.

(Section 5(4) added by section 3(b) of Act 59 of 1957)

(Section 5(4) substituted by section 12(1)(b) of Act 87 of 1988 with effect from 16 March 1988)

- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1)(f)bis, the term 'shares' includes any members' interests or any class of shares, stock, debenture stock, debentures or right to purchase members' interests or to subscribe for or purchase shares, stocks or debentures, and the term 'company' includes any company or close corporation incorporated in the Republic or elsewhere.

(Section 5(5) substituted by section 9(c) of Act 97 of 1993)

6. Administration of Act

- (1) The Commissioner shall be responsible for the administration of this Act.
- (2) The powers conferred and the duties imposed upon the Commissioner by this Act may be exercised or performed by the Commissioner or by any SARS official under the control, direction or supervision of the Commissioner.

(Section 6(2) substituted by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011)

- (3) Administrative requirements and procedures for purposes of the performance of any duty, power or obligation or the exercise of any right in terms of this Act are, to the extent not regulated in this Act, regulated by the Tax Administration Act.

(Section 6(3) substituted by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011)

7. Rendering of returns

- (1) Every executor or, if he or she is called upon by the Commissioner to do so, any person having the control of or any interest in any property included in the estate, shall submit to the Commissioner a return disclosing the amount claimed by the person submitting the return to represent the dutiable amount of the estate together with full particulars regarding-

(Words preceding paragraph (a) substituted by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011)

- (a) the property of the deceased as at the date of his death;
- (b) property which, in accordance with sub-section (3) of section three, is deemed to be property of the deceased as at that date;

(c) any deduction claimed in terms of section four.

9. Assessment of duty by Commissioner

(1) The Commissioner shall assess the duty payable under this Act and shall in respect of every estate liable for the duty issue a notice of assessment to the executor or, if there is no executor, to any person liable for the duty.

(1A) If the Commissioner, prior to the issue of a notice of assessment in terms of subsection (1)-

(a) is dissatisfied with any value at which any property is shown in any return; or

(b) is of the opinion that the amount claimed to represent the dutiable amount as disclosed in any return, does not represent the correct dutiable amount, the Commissioner shall adjust such value or amount and determine the dutiable amount upon which such assessment shall be raised accordingly.

(Section 9(1A) inserted by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011)

(Section 9(2) deleted by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011)

(3) A notice of assessment shall be issued in respect of each return submitted in respect of any estate in which liability for duty, other than in respect of additional property contemplated in subsection (4)(c), is disclosed, due regard being had in the calculation of the duty to any duty chargeable on any previous returns submitted in respect of the same estate.

(Section 9(3) substituted by section 1(1)(a) of Act 61 of 2008)

(a) Unless a notice of assessment has already been issued, a notice of assessment shall be deemed to have been issued in terms of section 9(3) in respect of the estate of every person-

(i) if the value of the estate does not exceed the amount determined by the Minister by notice in the Gazette contemplated in section 18(3) of the Administration of Estates Act, 1965 (Act No. 66 of 1965), on the date on which a death notice is given to a Master in terms of section 7 of that Act; or

(ii) in every other case, on the date on which the estate has become distributable in terms of section 35(12) of the Administration of Estates Act, 1965 (Act No. 66 of 1965).

(b) If additional property is found in respect of an estate within five years from the date contemplated in subparagraph (i) or (ii) and a supplementary liquidation and distribution account is required in terms of section 35 of the Administration of Estates Act, 1965 (Act No. 66 of 1965), paragraph (a) shall not apply and a notice of assessment shall be deemed to have been issued in terms of section 9(3) in respect of the estate on the date on which the supplementary liquidation and distribution account has become distributable in terms of section 35(12) of the Administration of Estates Act, 1965.

- (c) If additional property is found in respect of an estate more than five years after the date contemplated in subparagraph (i) or (ii) and a liquidation and distribution account is required in terms of section 35 of the Administration of Estates Act, 1965 (Act No. 66 of 1965), the additional property shall be subject to an estate duty as if that property were the sole property of the estate of the deceased and as if the death of the deceased occurred on the date on which the additional property was reflected in the supplementary liquidation and distribution account.

(Section 9(4) added by section 1(1)(b) of Act 61 of 2008)

- (5) An assessment contemplated in subsection (4)(a) and (b) is deemed to be an assessment by way of self-assessment.

9C. Payment of duty

The duty payable under this Act shall be paid on such date as may be prescribed in the notice of assessment issued in terms of section 9(3).

(Section 9C inserted by section 1 of Act 13 of 2017)

10. Payment of interest

- (1) If any duty remains unpaid at the expiration of a period of thirty days from the date for payment prescribed in terms of section 9C, there shall be payable, in addition to the unpaid duty, interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum on the amount of unpaid duty calculated from the date of the expiration of the said period to the date of payment: Provided that, where the assessment of duty is delayed beyond a period of twelve months from the date of death, interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum shall be payable as from a date twelve months after the date of death on the difference (if any) between the duty assessed and any deposit (if any) made on account of the duty payable within the said period of twelve months.

(Section 10(1) substituted by section 2(a) of Act 13 of 2017, pending its substitution by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011, read with paragraph 18 of Schedule 1 to that Act and section 3 of Act 21 of 2012 (commencement date of both Acts still to be proclaimed))

- (2) Whenever the Commissioner is satisfied that the delay in the payment of duty within the period of thirty days from the date for payment prescribed in terms of section 9C, or within the period of twelve months from the date of death, as the case may be, has not been occasioned either by the executor or by any person liable for the duty, the Commissioner may allow an extension of time within which the duty may be paid without interest if, before the expiration of the said period of thirty days or the said period of twelve months, as the case may be or such further period as the Commissioner may allow -
- (a) a deposit on account of the duty payable is made of an amount which, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is reasonable, regard being had to the amount of the duty payable; and
- (b) application is made in writing to the Commissioner for such extension of time.

(Section 10(2) substituted by section 2(b) of Act 13 of 2017)

11. Person liable for duty

The person liable for the duty shall be -

- (a) where duty is levied on property of the deceased which falls under sub-section (2) of section three -
- (i) as to any property referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of that sub-section, the person to whom any advantage accrues by the death of the deceased;
- (ii) as to any other property, the executor;
- (b) where duty is levied on property which, in accordance with sub-section (3) of section three, is deemed to be property of the deceased -
- (i) as to property referred to in paragraph (a) of that sub-section, the executor: Provided that where the amount due under the policy is recoverable by any person other than the executor, the person liable for the duty shall be the person entitled to recover the amount due under the policy;
- (iA)

(Section 11(b)(iA) added by section 3(1) of Act 56 of 1966 with effect from 24 March 1965)

(Section 11(b)(iA) deleted by section 3 of Act 15 of 2016. Deemed to have come into operation on 1 January 2009 and applies in respect of the estate of a person who dies on or after that date.)

(ii) as to any property referred to in paragraph (b) of that subsection, the donee;
(Section 11(b)(ii) substituted by section 13(1) of Act 87 of 1988 with effect from 16 March 1988)
(Section 11(b)(ii) substituted by section 3 of Act 37 of 1995)

(iii) as to any property referred to in paragraph (cA) or (d) of that subsection, the executor.
(Section 11(b)(iii) substituted by section 3 of Act 37 of 1995)

12. Duty payable by executor

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 11, any duty payable under this Act shall be payable by and recoverable from the executor of the estate subject to the duty, to the extent contemplated in Chapters 10 and 11 of the Tax Administration Act.

(Section 12 amended by section 4 of Act 18 of 2009)
(Section 12 substituted by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011)

12A.

(Section 12B inserted by section 1 of Act 21 of 2006)
(Section 12B repealed by section 271 of Act 28 of 2011)

13. Right of recovery by executor

(1) Every executor who is required to pay duty in respect of any property referred to in paragraph (a) (i), or in the proviso to paragraph (b)(i) or (b)(iA), or in paragraph (b)(ii), of section 11, shall be entitled to recover from the person liable therefor the duty attributable to such property.

(Section 13(1) substituted by section 7(1)(a) of Act 92 of 1971 with effect from 1 April 1971)

(2) The duty attributable to any such property shall be a sum which bears to the full duty payable in respect of the estate (before the deduction in accordance with the provisions of section 16 of any amount in respect of transfer duty or donations tax) the same ratio as that portion of the net value of the estate (as determined under section 4) which is attributable to the inclusion in the estate of the value of the said property, bears to the net value of the estate as so determined, reduced, in any case in which there is, in accordance with the said section 16, deducted from the duty payable in respect of the estate, any amount of transfer duty or donations tax paid in respect of any property included in the estate which has accrued to the person liable for the duty attributable to that property, by the amount of the transfer duty or donations tax so paid.

(Section 13(2) substituted by section 7(1)(b) of Act 92 of 1971 with effect from 1 April 1971)

- (3) Whenever duty is in terms of section 11(b)(i) payable by more than one person on the value of any property referred to in section 3(3)(a), the amount of duty payable by each such person shall be such proportion of the total duty attributable to the total value of the said property, as bears to the said total duty the same ratio as so much of the amount which such person is entitled to recover under any policy as is included in the estate under section 3(3)(a), bears to the total value of the said property.

(Section 13(3) substituted by section 14(1) of Act 87 of 1988 with effect from 16 March 1988)

14. Right to mortgage property

To provide for the payment of any duty, the person liable therefor may, with the consent of the Master, borrow any moneys or mortgage any property in respect of which the liability for duty arises, notwithstanding [sic] any provision to the contrary contained in any deed or testamentary disposition or in any law.

15. Recovery of duty paid in certain cases

Any person who has disposed of property in respect of which a liability for duty in accordance with subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of section eleven, thereafter arises, without having received full consideration therefor, may recover from the person to whom he has disposed of such property the amount of duty payable by him in respect thereof.

16. Deduction of transfer duty and donations tax

There shall be deducted from any duty payable under this Act -

- (a) any transfer duty which is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to have been paid in respect of the acquisition from the deceased or his estate of any property included in the estate for the purposes of the assessment of duty, by any person liable for the duty attributable to that property;

(Section 16(a) amended by section 5(a) of Act 65 of 1960)

- (b)

(Section 16(b) amended by section 5(b) of Act 65 of 1960)

(Section 16(b) amended by section 11 of Act 77 of 1964)

(Section 16(b) deleted by section 15(1) of Act 87 of 1988 with effect from 16 March 1988)

- (c) without in any way modifying or adding to the rights of any person under an agreement entered into by the Government of the Republic with the Government of any other country or territory relating to the prevention of or relief from double taxation in respect of estate duty, any amount of any death duties proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to have been paid to any other State in respect of any property situate outside the Republic and included in the estate of any person who at the date of his death was ordinarily resident in the Republic: Provided that the deduction under this paragraph shall not exceed the duty imposed on such property by this Act.

(Section 16(c) added by section 5(c) of Act 65 of 1960)

17. No account to be filed by Master before duty is paid or secured

The Master shall not file any liquidation and distribution account in his office or grant a discharge to any executor until he is satisfied that the duty payable under this Act has been paid or secured to the satisfaction of the Commissioner or that the Commissioner consents to the discharge.

(Section 17 amended by section 8 of Act 92 of 1971)

18. No property to be delivered by executor before duty provided for

Before delivering or transferring any property of the deceased to any heir or legatee the executor shall satisfy the Commissioner that due provision has been made for the payment of any duty payable under this Act.

19.

(Section 19 repealed by section 5 of Act 18 of 2009)

20. Expenditure incurred by executor

Every executor who is required to incur any expenditure in respect of any property which falls under paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-section (2) or under sub-section (3) of section three, shall be entitled to recover such expenditure from the person liable, in accordance with section eleven, for the duty payable in respect of such property.

31. Repeal of laws

- (1) The laws set out in the Second Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent set out in the third column of the said Schedule: Provided that the said laws shall continue to apply in relation to the estate of any person who died before the first day of April, 1955.
- (2) Any agreement entered into and any proclamation issued under section thirty-six bis of the Death Duties Act, 1922 (Act No. 29 of 1922), and in force at the date of commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been entered into or issued also under section twenty-six of this Act.

32. Short title and date of commencement

This Act shall be called the Estate Duty Act, 1955, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on the first day of April, 1955.

First Schedule
RATE OF ESTATE DUTY

- (1) The rate of estate duty shall be—

(a)

(i) 20 per cent of the dutiable amount of the estate as does not exceed R30 million; and

(ii) 25 per cent of the dutiable amount of the estate as exceeds R30 million; or (Paragraph (1)(a) of the First Schedule substituted by section 1(1) of Act 21 of 2018)

(b) a percentage of the dutiable amount of the estate as the Minister of Finance may announce in the national annual budget contemplated in section 27(1) of the Public Finance Management Act, 1999 (Act No. 1 of 1999), with effect from a date mentioned in that announcement:

(Words preceding the proviso of the First Schedule substituted by section 4(a) of Act 15 of 2016 and numbered as paragraph (1))

Provided that where duty becomes payable upon the value of any movable or immovable property or on a value determined by reference to the value of any movable or immovable property, and duty has, upon the death of any person (hereinafter referred to as the first-dying person), who died within ten years prior to the death of the deceased, become payable upon the value of that movable or immovable property or upon a value determined by reference to the value of that movable or immovable property (or any movable or immovable property for which the Commissioner is satisfied that that movable or immovable property has been substituted), the duty attributable to the value of that movable or immovable property or, as the case may be, the value determined by reference to the value of that movable or immovable property, but not exceeding (in either case) an amount equal to the value on which duty has become payable on the death of the first-dying person, shall be reduced by a percentage according to the following scale-

if the deceased dies within two years of the death of the first-dying person	100 per cent if the deceased dies more than two years, but not more than four years after the death of the first-dying person	80 per cent if the deceased dies more than four years, but not more than six years after the death of the first-dying person	60 per cent if the deceased dies more than six years, but not more than eight years after the death of the first-dying person	40 per cent if the deceased dies more than eight years, but not more than ten years after the death of the first-dying person	20 per cent subject to a maximum reduction equal to so much of the duty previously payable upon the death of the first-dying person as is attributable to the value of that movable or immovable property or, as the case may be, to an amount equal to the value determined by reference to the value of that movable or immovable property, and as is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner to have been borne by the deceased.

- (2) If the Minister of Finance makes an announcement contemplated in subparagraph 1(b), that rate comes into effect on the date determined by the Minister in that announcement and continues to apply for a period of 12 months from that date subject to Parliament passing legislation giving effect to that announcement within that period of 12 months.
